SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. R. W. D.
WEAVER), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Governor's Speech: Address-in-Reply: It is not Parliamentary practice to read the whole of a speech, and in future only extracts will be allowed to be read, 130.

Reading of Speeches: Occasions may arise when, in the exercise of its discretion, the Chair may relax the rule regarding the reading of speeches, and allow latitude to party leaders, 817.

Meeting of the House: It being alleged that Mr. Speaker had left the chair without a motion for the adjournment of the House and that, therefore, next day the House did not meet in a regular manner, Mr. Speaker ruled that the House had met regularly and constitutionally, 150.

Questions: Questions without notice should not be read, they should be brief and concise and of an urgent character. Questions involving the furnishing of detailed information, and questions that are not of specific urgency should be placed on the Questions and Answers paper, 232, 817.

It is in the interests of hon. members that during question time, Ministers should be allowed to lay on the table of the House, for incorporation in Hansard, lengthy prepared answers to questions, 2135.

University Senate, Election of Fellow: Two nominations having been received for the office of Fellow of the University of Sydney, as representative of the Legislative Assembly, the mover has no right of reply. If the first motion is agreed to, the second motion lapses, 632.

Finances Adjustment Bill: An hon. member proceeding to quote from Hansard for the present session, Mr. Speaker ruled that he would enforce in its literal application Standing Order 143, which provides: No member shall allude to any debate of the same session, upon a question or bill not being then under discussion, except by the indulgence by the House for personal explanation, 1932.

Answers to Questions: It would be usurping the rights of Parliament if replies to questions were conveyed direct to the questioner instead of being made through the medium of this Chamber, 2243.
