ASKING OF QUESTIONS, 658.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES:
Temporary, 19.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES AND DEPUTY SPEAKER (GEORGE BOOTH, ESQ.), RULINGS, OPINIONS AND OBSERVATIONS:

Abattoir and Homebush Saleyards: It is distinctly unparliamentary and disorderly for an hon. member to accuse the Government of desiring, with evil intent, to appoint a Select Committee, 628.

Budget, The: An hon. member may refer to notes to refresh his memory, but he may not read his speech, 1533.

Estimates, 1941-42: There is no standing order or ruling providing that the leader of the Opposition shall lead the debate on the Estimates. Consequently, the debate being open, and the leader of the Opposition absent from the Chamber, any hon. member who receives the call may exercise his prerogative and speak on the Estimates, 1619.

Income Tax Management (Amendment) Bill: An hon. member may not read from Hansard of the current session, 2801.

In debating a taxation measure an hon. member may not discuss in detail Commonwealth taxation matters, 2804.

The reply by the mover of a motion closes the debate thereon, 2808.

Loan Estimates, 1941-42: An hon. member is out of order in discussing taxation during the debate on Loan Estimates. Hon. members must address the Chair, 3503.

As the report of the Select Committee on the Abattoirs and Homebush Saleyards was the subject of a motion on the business paper, it was not in order to discuss it, 3504.

It would be out of order to read from current Hansard, but the hon. member for Neutral Bay was not actually doing so, 3509.

Motor Vehicles (Third Party Insurance) Bill: In Committee on a motion to amend the title of a bill it is out of order to discuss a proposed new schedule, 3329.

Trustees of Public Reserves Bill: An amendment seeking to provide for the appointment of persons who are more than 70 years of age, being contradictory to a clause already agreed to by the Committee providing that a trustee must retire upon attaining the age of 70 years, is therefore out of order, 1272.

Western Lands (Amendment) Bill:

Though he may not read the whole of his speech, a Minister, when dealing with an intricate bill, is entitled to make frequent reference to his notes, 378.

The Minister for Lands having clearly and specifically said in his second-reading speech that he intended to introduce a War Service Land Settlement Bill, the hon. member for Temora must withdraw, without qualification, his assertion that no such statement had been made, 600.

The correctness or otherwise of an hon. member's expression of opinion does not form a point of order, 644, 652.

The relevance of an amendment being in considerable doubt, the Chairman, not feeling justified in ruling the amendment out of order, leaves its admissibility for the decision of the Committee, 672.

The expression, "blathering," when applied to a speech by a Minister, is unparliamentary, 1970.

The War Service Land Settlement Act, having no connection with the bill, may not be referred to at length, 1971.

Standing Order No. 147, which precludes reference to a debate of the same session in the other House of Parliament, must be given the widest interpretation. Its object is to prevent long-range arguments developing between the two Houses. It was never meant to restrain hon. members from making allusion to what has taken place in the Legislative Council, particularly when the Committee is considering the Legislative Council's amendments in a bill. Though an hon. member may not quote from Hansard of the current session, he may make an extempore reference to what has taken place in the Legislative Council, 1949-50.

Widows' Pensions (Amendment) Bill: On a motion for leave to introduce a bill, debate is confined to the matter dealt with in the bill, 3212.

Workers' Compensation Act and Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act (Amendment) Bill: An hon. member is out of order in referring to a by-election, during the consideration of an amendment made by the Legislative Council in the bill, 3817.

To state that certain hon. members are connected with insurance companies is not to impute improper motives, 3817, 3818.

Standing Order 147 ("No. member shall allude to any debate of the same session in the other House of Parliament") is to be given a wide interpretation, and debate on the Legislative Council's amendments to a bill could not take place without reference to reasons given by the Legislative Council for such amendments, 3819. The necessity for the Legislative Council, however, may not be discussed at this stage, 3873.

23 July, 1941, to 8 July, 1942.

The Committee having concurred in the proposal to consider ten amendments in globo, Standing Order 142A, limiting time of speeches, must prevail, 3821.

The term "parasite" as applied to an hon. member of the Legislative Council is unparliamentary. On the motion that the Committee insist or otherwise upon its disagreement with amendments made by the Legislative Council, debate must be confined to that motion, 3930, 3931.

COMMITTEES:

Sessional, 283.

Supply and Ways and Means, 282.

HOURS OF SITTING, m., 3559, 3895.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE:

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE, 210, 303.

SELECT COMMITTEES:

Reporting of Evidence, 570.

SESSIONAL ORDERS, 282, 1787, 3895.

SITTINGS OF PARLIAMENT, adj., 2679; m., 2767.

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. D. CLYNE), RULINGS, OPINIONS AND OBSERVATIONS:

Adjournment: On the motion for adjournment an hon. member may not discuss a matter that has already been the subject of a general debate, but he is in order in discussing a matter that has been debated on a motion of urgency, 3170, 3171.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. D. CLYNE), RULINGS, OPINIONS AND OBSERVATIONS (continued):

An hon. member is in order in vigorously criticising a public journal, while he uses parliamentary language, 3352.

An hon. member is in order in referring to a matter, involving the Apple and Pear Acquisition Board, which is not related to the subject of a certain pending appeal, so long as he does not make any statement or use arguments likely to prejudice such pending appeal, 3515.

Business, Routine of: Though Standing Order 74 specifies the routine of business, it is the practice of the House, when hon. members are called together in special circumstances, for the Premier to be called when he rises. Papers may be tabled at any time during the proceedings of the House when there is no other business before it, and that had been done by ministers in accordance with the prescribed form. Then the Premier, having risen, received the call, 2672.

Felicitations, 2589.

Income Tax Management (Amendment)

Bill: An hon. member may not discuss matters irrelevant to the measure, but may make passing reference to them for the purpose of clarifying his argument, 2797.

The word "curs" as applied to hon. members is unparliamentary and must be withdrawn, 2808.

Keepit Dam, adj.: The object of speaking on the adjournment is to ventilate a grievance or to draw attention to something of a specific nature. That, an hon. member will be given an opportunity to do; but he is not entitled on the motion for the adjournment to enter into a full discussion of a motion that has already been debated on more than one occasion, 1147.

Loan Council: The Premier's reply to numerous questions on this subject may be regarded as a Ministerial Statement, in respect of which the practice has been that, after the leader of the Opposition replies, discussion ends, as there is no motion before the House, 317.

Motion of Urgency: When submitting a motion of urgency, an hon. member must confine himself to the reasons for urgency, and may not discuss the substantive motion, 2411, 2725, 2741.

Volumes 165-167.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. D. CLYNE),
RULINGS, OPINIONS AND OBSERVATIONS

Standing Order 395 does not provide that the matter with which it is desired to deal urgently must have been of recent occurrence, 2411.

Private Member's Business: An hon. member may quote a motion as it appears on the Business Paper, but unless he can vouch for the accuracy of quotations contained therein he may not debate them, 1845.

Questions without Notice: The subject matter of questions without notice should be of an urgent character, and such questions may be read to the House from previously prepared manuscript or notes. The Question should be asked and the replies given, sufficiently loudly and clearly to enable the official reporters to make an accurate record of both. It is suggested that, in order to assist the reporting staff, hon. members might deliver the manuscript of proposed questions to the reporters seated at the table of the House, 658.

Statements of fact and comments may not be made in the asking of a question, except insofar as may be necessary to explain such question, 3134, 3140.

A matter the subject of pending appeal may not be referred to in any way in a question, 3399, 3400.

Select Committees: Reporting of Evidence: Because of the need for the observance of the utmost economy in printing costs, and because of the paper shortage brought about by wartime conditions, evidence taken before Select Committees of the House shall, in future, be recorded in narrative form. This method has a definite advantage over the question and answer form, and should effect a saving of 33 per cent. in the cost of printing and paper. Also, it makes for simplicity and accuracy, 570.

Speeches, Time Limit: So that an hon. member, when speaking, may be made aware that the time available to him is about to be exhausted, Mr. Speaker has had installed on his desk a coloured light, which will be illumined three minutes before the hon. member's time is exhausted.

Water Conservation: The amendment by the hon. member for Namoi seeking to ensure that, instead of the State Government's providing a certain sum of money for water conservation works in

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. D. CLYNE),

New South Wales, such projects should be financed by the Commonwealth Government, in no way alters the principle of the motion. The only difference between the motion and the amendment is one of method. The amendment, therefore, is in order, 1120.

Western Lands (Amendment) Bill: A Minister, when dealing with an intricate measure involving a great deal of research and close inspection of departmental files, is entitled to make generous reference to his notes, 385.

Workers' Compensation Act and Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act (Amendment) Bill: An hon. member is not in order in discussing compulsory unionism on this bill, as it is not covered by the bill.

SPECIAL ADJOURNMENT, 324, 1320, 2439, 2584, 2624, 2671, 3630, 3934.

SPEECHES, TIME LIMIT, 27.

STANDING ORDERS COMMITTEE, m., 3404.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN (THOMAS JOHN SHANNON, ESQ.), RULINGS, OPINIONS, AND OBSERVATIONS:

Western Lands (Amendment) Bill:

The practice is to specify the Legislative Council, not by name, but by using the words "another place," 1946.

The amendment before the Committee deals with both compensation and Ministerial control, and the Minister, in referring to those matters, is not transgressing the standing orders. Also, the Minister is entitled to refer to notes, and make an extensive speech on the Legislative Council's amendments, which are opposed by the Government, 1947-8.

ACTING-PRESIDENT (THE HON. E. H. FARRAR), RULINGS, OPINIONS, AND OBSERVATIONS:

Coal Mines Regulation (Further Amendment) Bill: Though an hon. member is not entitled to read his speech, he is permitted, when speaking upon a highly technical matter, to refer frequently to his notes, 507.

Factories and Shops (Further Amendment) Bill: The Hon. Mr. Concannon having dissented from a ruling by the Temporary Chairman of Committees that an amendment by the hon. member was not in order under the provisions of standing order 175, the ruling is upheld, on the ground that the amendment would eliminate powers, duties and functions contained in the measure, and would thereby reverse the principle of the bill as read a second time, 1390.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES, 3225, 3354.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (THE HON. GEORGE STACHER ARCHER), RULINGS, OPINIONS AND OBSERVATIONS:

Coal Mines Regulation (Further Amendment) Bill: An hon. member, having raised a point of order, is not entitled to reply to the submissions made by another hon. member on that point of order, 510. An amendment that reverses the principle of the bill as read a second time is out of order, 510.

Factories and Shops (Further Amendment) Bill: An amendment by the Hon. Mr. Concannon that seeks to eliminate powers, duties and functions contained in the bill is out of order because it reverses the principle of the bill as read a second time, 1386.

Mill (Amendment) Bill: In Committee on a motion to amend a clause an hon. member must confine his remarks to the amendment, 3310.

Personal Explanations: An hon. member may make a personal explanation in regard to a matter in which his name was involved, but any further explanation would be out of order, 3244.
