POINTS OF ORDER:—
Reported from Committee of Supply, 128.
RULINGS OF MR. SPEAKER:—
That before the Chairman for the Session is elected, Mr. Speaker could call upon a Temporary Chairman to take the chair, 39.
That a Temporary Chairman called upon to act at the commencement of the first Session of a new Parliament before the permanent Chairman is appointed could take the chair and conduct the business just as though he were a permanent Chairman of Committees, 39.
That the Maintenance Orders Bill was out of order, as it interfered with trade, and should have been preceded by a Message and brought in through Committee, 69.
That the Murrumbidgee Irrigation Bill was not beyond the Order of Leave, and was in order, 109.
That the item £3,000—Hermidale-Nymagee, towards Railway construction—on the Loan Estimates was in order, as the House had taken all possible preliminary steps in reference to that item, 128.
That the item £50,000—State Brickworks, towards establishment of and providing means of distribution—on the Loan Estimates was out of order, as it was an infringement of the Public Works Act, no steps having been taken towards an inquiry, 128.
RULINGS OF MR. DEPUTY-SPEAKER:—
That, although the work was already authorised by an Act passed in 1902, the motion respecting the Railway from Cobar to Wilcannia complied with the provisions of section 23 of the Public Works Act, and was in order, 139.
That the plan produced and report cited by the Minister in respect to the Railway from Cobar to Wilcannia sufficiently complied with section 28 of the Public Works Act, and the motion was in order, 140.
