POINT PIPER ROAD (See "DRAINAGE").
POINTS OF ORDER:—
Reported from Committee of the Whole, 298, 492.
Reported from Committee of Supply, 463.
RULINGS OF SPEAKER:—
That the Order of Leave to bring in the North Shore Bridge Bill did not give the name of the person seeking the authority under the Bill, 22.
That it was irregular to make charges against a public officer on a motion for adjournment, 10.
That an amendment to apply the "betterment system" to the work of improvement of Cook's River on its reference to the Public Works Committee was not relevant, 55.
That Bank Holidays Act Amendment Bill did not require to be introduced in Committee, 80.
That amendment to add words, approving of the action of the Government, to Amendment on Vote of Censure respecting Fees paid on Dean Commission, was not relevant, 118.
That documents required by Public Works Act had been submitted by Minister when moving motion to refer Condobolin-Broken Hill Railway to Public Works Committee, 139.
That Bills of Sale Bill did not require to be introduced in Committee, 150.
That proviso in Clause 1 of the Small Debts Recovery Act Amendment Bill was not beyond the Order of Leave, 180.
That motion for adjournment in reference to delay of Department of Lands in proclaiming roads open for traffic anticipated discussion on Public Roads Bill, and was out of order, 187.
That motion for adjournment of House, moved by Mr. Affleck, in reference to question given to him by Minister for Works, was not altogether out of order, 191.
That the Title of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act Amendment Bill covered the provisions of the Bill, but amendments must be within the scope of the Bill rather than within the terms of the Title, 246.
That motion to go into Committee to introduce George-street and Harris-street Tramway Bill could not be debated, 257.
That amendment proposed on amendment to add words to motion to refer Fiscal Question to Plebiscite Vote was not inconsistent with original motion, 265.

SPEAKER (continued) :—
RULINGS OF :—
✓ That it was irregular to make charges against a Public officer on a motion for adjournment, 10.
✓ That an amendment to apply the "betterment system" to the work of improvement of Cook's River on its reference to the Public Works Committee was not relevant, 55.
That Bank Holidays Act Amendment Bill did not require to be introduced in Committee, 80.
That Amendment to add words, approving of the action of the Government, to Amendment on Vote of Censure respecting Fees paid on Dean Commission was not relevant, 118.
That documents required by the Public Works Act had been submitted by Minister when moving motion to refer Condobolin-Broken Hill Railway to Public Works Committee, 139.
That Bills of Sale Bill did not require to be introduced in Committee, 150.
That proviso in Clause I of the Small Debts Recovery Act Amendment Bill was not beyond the Order of leave, 180.
That motion for adjournment in reference to delay of Department of Lands in proclaiming roads open for traffic anticipated discussion on Public Roads Bill, and was out of order, 187.
That motion for adjournment of House, moved by Mr. Aspley, in reference to question given to him by Minister for Works, was not altogether out of order, 191.
That the Title of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act Amendment Bill covered the provisions of the Bill, but amendments must be within the scope of the Bill rather than within the terms of the Title, 246.
That motion to go into Committee to introduce George-street and Harris-street Tramway Bill could not be debated, 257.
That amendment proposed on amendment to add words to motion to refer Fiscal Question to Plebiscite Vote was not inconsistent with original motion, 265.
Mr. Speaker allowed motion for adjournment, under 49th Standing Order, in reference to alteration in Prisons Department to be proceeded with, although not disclosing "a definite matter," the mover proposing to deal only with subject of treatment of Warders in Darlinghurst Gaol, 282.
That amendment proposed on amendment moved in Resolution in Committee of the Whole on the Liquor Traffic Local Option Bill was practically identical with one which had been already decided, and was out of order, 299.
That motion of adjournment in reference to School Accommodation for District of Alexandria was out of order, as matter could be discussed in Committee of Supply, 326.
That motion of adjournment in reference to classification of Country Postmasters by Public Service Board was out of order, as matter could be ventilated in Committee of Supply, 309.
That order of leave for State Savings Bank Bill was sufficiently comprehensive to cover any proposed amendments in Constitution Act, 407.
That he could not decide that the motion of adjournment in reference to Sunday trading was out of order on the ground that it anticipated the consideration of the Bill to amend the Licensing Law, that Bill not having been introduced, 426.
That Chairman's ruling that it was not in order on the item in Committee of Supply "To complete the Sydney Hospital" to discuss the conduct of the Hospital officials, was correct, 463.
✓ That Chairman's ruling that amendment proposed in Committee of the Whole on the Council's amendments in the Public Roads Bill, to insert words in clause to qualify Council's amendments was not in order, was incorrect, 492.
That Order of the Day for the consideration in Committee of the Whole of the expediency of bringing in the Liquor Traffic Local Option Bill (No. 2) was the same in substance and argument as one previously considered, and was out of order, 493.
DISSENT FROM RULING :—
