RULINGS OF SPEAKER :—
That the motion for a Sessional Order in reference to Limitation of Speeches was ultra vires and out of order, being in conflict with the Standing Orders, 48.
That motion for the adjournment of the House in reference to the repeal of laws relating to Sunday Trading would anticipate discussion on a Notice of Motion on the Notice Paper, 134.
That Medical Practitioners (Amending) Bill did not affect "trade," and did not require to be introduced in Committee, 139.
That motion for the adjournment of House in reference to Sunday Trading intercepted discussion on a Notice of Motion on Notice Paper, and was not in order, 147.
That motion for the adjournment of House on Removal of Abattoirs to Homebush did not anticipate discussion on Bills, nor on the report of the Public Works Committee, on the subject, 164.
That Water and Drainage Bill did not amend the Public Works Act nor the Water Rights Act, and was not beyond the Order of Leave or Title, 168.
That the Women's Franchise Bill did not repeal or amend the Constitution Act, and the Order of Leave was sufficiently comprehensive to cover the matters referred to in the clauses, 173.
That motion for adjournment of the House on Consolidation of the Statutes did not anticipate discussion on the Bills for that purpose, 178.
That he would not rule the motion to carry out work of Construction of Dam on the Cataract River out of order, notwithstanding that work proposed was not the work referred to the Committee, but a modification of such work, 235.
That subject of motion for adjournment in reference to Fodder Duties, although relating to Federal Taxation, could be discussed; also that it was not necessary to take the discussion in Committee of Ways and Means, 241.
That motion affirming desirability of providing supplementary water supply for Sydney from Nepean River, at cost of £17,000, was in order, and need not be referred to Public Works Committee, 247.
That Standing Order No. 395, relating to matters of urgency, was intended to permit (the House approving) a matter being considered which the Standing Orders would otherwise prevent, but it was not the duty of the Speaker to decide as to the matter of urgency, 270.
That amendment, on motion to establish a State Ironworks, to intimate to Federal Government that the House supports the proposal of that Government for a bonus for the manufacture of iron, was not relevant to the question, 288.
That motion for adjournment of the House in reference to treatment of Major Lenchau by Imperial Military Authorities could be discussed, notwithstanding matters relating to the Military had passed to the Federal Government, 318.
That Coroner's Act Amendment Bill involved expenditure, and should be preceded by a Message from the Governor, and was out of order, 318.
That Savings Bank of New South Wales (Amendment) Bill was out of order, as it sought to amend Acts which were not covered by the Order of Leave, 318.
That motion for adjournment in reference to stoppage of Harbour Improvements at Newcastle could be discussed in Committee of Supply, and was out of order, 358.

That amendment on vote of censure motion in reference to case of Moss Morris Friedman, to take steps to transfer power given under Article IX of Governor's Instructions from the Minister to the Executive Council, was not relevant, 373.
That matter of the maladministration of the Miners' Accident Relief Fund Act could be discussed in Committee of Supply, and was out of order, 380.
That he would not rule the motion for adjournment in reference to secession of this State from the Commonwealth out of order on the ground that it could be discussed on the Financial Debate, 392.
That motion for adjournment respecting statements in regard to addition of £136,000 to salaries for last year could be discussed on the Financial Debate, and was out of order, 401.
That motion for adjournment in reference to vexatious and harassing administration of Federal laws in New South Wales would raise the same discussion as that on the motion to secede from the Commonwealth, and was out of order, 406.
That member having moved an amendment on an item in Committee of Supply, and the closure having been applied, had no right of reply. No reply could be claimed in Committee, 435.
That motion for adjournment of the House in reference to discharge of the Regulation of Wages in Coal Mines Bill, related to proceedings in the other House, and could not be discussed, 476.
That subject of motion in reference to Water Conservation and Irrigation had been already discussed on Water and Drainage Bill, 495.
That motion for adjournment of the House in reference to Relief Works for Distressed Settlers had been previously discussed during the present Session, and was out of order, 546.
That the Standing Orders having been suspended, the amendment moved on motion for the temporary rebate of duties on Broad Stuffs and Fodder, to ensure commodities being sold at reasonable rates, was in order, notwithstanding subject had been dealt with, 553.
That Notice of Motion for the adjournment of the House having been drawn from the box, and not being supported by the Member submitting such, and five others, could not be entertained; also that a motion to submit a second motion for adjournment was then in order, 557.
That the usual practice of moving Government Orders of the Day and Notices indiscriminately could not conveniently be changed except at the beginning of a Session, 567.
That he would not deprive the Hon. Member for Rylstone of his right to dissent from the ruling in reference to a second motion for adjournment under the 49th Standing Order, but he (Mr. Speaker) having further considered the point, was convinced he was in error, and wished to recall that ruling, 583.
RULING OF DEPUTY-SPEAKER:—
That he could not rule the Public Instruction Act Amendment Bill out of order on the ground of its not being introduced in Committee, nor having been preceded by a Message from the Governor, 353.
That subject of motion for adjournment in reference to pay of returned Contingents, could have been discussed on the Estimates, and was out of order, 594.
That subject of motion for adjournment in reference to the Fisheries of the State, had already been discussed, and was out of order, 603.
That subject of motion for adjournment of the House in reference to amendment of Arbitration Act had already been discussed on Estimates, and was out of order, 604.
POISONS ACT AMENDMENT BILL:—

RULINGS OF :—
That the motion for a Sessional Order in reference to limitation of speeches was ultra vires and out of order, being in conflict with the Standing Orders, 48.
That Motion for the Adjournment of House in reference to the repeal of laws relating to Sunday Trading would anticipate discussion on a Notice of Motion on the Paper, 131.
That Medical Practitioners (Amending) Bill did not affect "trade" and did not require to be introduced in Committee, 139.
That Adjournment of House in reference to Sunday Trading intercepted discussion on a Notice of Motion on Notice Paper and was not in order, 147.
That Motion for the Adjournment of House on Removal of Abattoirs to Homebush did not anticipate discussion on Bills nor on the Report of Public Works Committee on the subject, 161.
That Water and Drainage Bill did not amend the Public Works Act nor the Water Rights Act, and was not beyond the Order of Leave or Title, 168.
That the Women's Franchise Bill did not repeal or amend the Constitution Act, and the Order of Leave was sufficiently comprehensive to cover the matters referred to in the clauses, 173.
That Motion for Adjournment of the House on Consolidation of the Statutes did not anticipate discussion on the Bills for that purpose, 178.
That he would not rule the motion to carry out work of Construction of Dam on the Cataract River out of order, notwithstanding that work proposed was not the work referred to the Committee, but a modification of such work, 235.
That subject of motion for adjournment in reference to Fodder Duties, although relating to Federal Taxation, could be discussed; also that it was not necessary to take the discussion in Committee of Ways and Means, 241.
That motion affirming desirability of providing supplementary water supply for Sydney from Nepean River, at cost of £17,000, was in order, and need not be referred to Public Works Committee, 247.
That Standing Order No. 395, relating to matters of urgency, was intended to permit (the House approving) a matter being considered which the Standing Orders would otherwise prevent, but it was not the duty of the Speaker to decide as to the matter of urgency, 270.
That amendment, on motion to establish a State Ironworks, to intimate to Federal Government that the House supports the proposal of that Government for a bonus for the manufacture of iron, was not relevant to the question, 288.
That adjournment of the House in reference to treatment of Major Lenehan by Imperial Military Authorities could be discussed, notwithstanding matters relating to the Military had passed to the Federal Government, 318.
That Coroner's Act Amendment Bill involved expenditure and should be preceded by a Message from the Governor, and was out of order, 318.
That Savings Bank of New South Wales (Amendment) Bill was out of order, as it sought to amend Acts which were not covered by the Order of Leave, 318.
That motion for adjournment in reference to Stoppage of Harbour Improvements at Newcastle could be discussed in Committee of Supply, and was out of order, 358.
That amendment on Vote of Censure Motion in reference to case of Moss Morris Friedman, to take steps to transfer power given under Article IX of Governor's Instructions from the Minister to the Executive Council, was not relevant, 373.

That matter of the maladministration of the Miners' Accident Relief Fund Act could be discussed in Committee of Supply, and was out of order, 380.
That he would not rule the motion for adjournment in reference to Secession of this State from the Commonwealth, out of order on the ground that it could be discussed on the Financial Debate, 392.
That motion for adjournment, respecting statements in regard to addition of £136,000 to salaries for last year, could be discussed on Financial Debate, and was out of order, 401.
That motion for adjournment, in reference to vexatious and harassing Administration of Federal Laws in New South Wales, would raise the same discussion as that on the motion to secede from the Commonwealth, and was out of order, 406.
That Member, having moved an amendment on an item in Committee of Supply, and the closure having been applied, had no right of reply. No reply could be claimed in Committee, 435.
